

RENTALSCOMBINED.NET – COOKIE POLICY

1. What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files containing a string of characters that can be placed on your computer or mobile device that uniquely identify your browser or device.

2. What are cookies used for?

Cookies allow a site or services to know if your computer or device has visited that site or service before. Cookies can then be used to help understand how the site is being used, help you navigate between pages efficiently, help remember your preferences, and generally improve your browsing experience. Cookies can also help ensure marketing you see online is more relevant to you and your interests. We use cookies to help identify your computer so we can tailor your user experience, track your search and booking activity and remember where you are in the process.

3. What types of cookies does RentalsCombined.net use?

We routinely use two categories of cookies: “Strictly Necessary,” “Performance,” and “Functionality.” You can find out more about each cookie category below.

1. Strictly Necessary Cookies. These cookies are essential, as they enable you to move around the website and use its features, such as accessing logged in or secure areas.
2. Performance Cookies. These cookies collect information about how you have used the website, for example, from third party Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google Inc.. Google Analytics may use cookies to gather information about how visitors use RentalsCombined. In turn, we may then use Google Analytics to analyze how our site is being used. This information about how our website is shared with Google to be used to compile statistical reports that enable us to measure and analyse the number of visits to the site and its pages, the average time spent on the site and the pages viewed.

You can learn more about Google Analytics at www.google.com/analytics. To read Google Analytics’ Privacy Policy, please visit http://www.google.com/intl/en\)ALL/privacypolicy.htmlALL/privacypolicy.html)

These cookies may also be used to allow us to know that you have logged in so that we can serve you fresher content than a user who has never logged in. We also use cookies to track aggregate website usage and experiment with new features and changes. The information collected is used to improve how the website works.

3. Functionality Cookies. These cookies allow us to remember how you're logged in, and what your chosen currency preference is. These cookies also allow us to tailor the Service to provide enhanced features and content for you and to remember how you've customized the Service in other ways, such as customizing the toolbars we offer in the right column of every page. The information these cookies collect may be anonymous, and they are not used to track your browsing activity on other sites or services.

4. How long will cookies stay on my device?

The length of time a cookie will stay on your computer or mobile device depends on whether it is a "persistent" or "session" cookie. Our session cookies will only stay on your device until you stop browsing. Our persistent cookies (used to record your currency preference) stay on your computer or mobile device until they expire or are deleted.

5. First and third party cookies

First-party cookies are cookies that belong to our website, third-party cookies are cookies that another party places on your device such as our third-party hosting provider. Third-party cookies may be placed on your device by someone providing a service for RentalsCombined, for example to help us understand how our website is being used. Third-party cookies may also be placed on your device by our business partners so that they can use them to advertise products and services to you elsewhere on the Internet.

6. How to control and delete cookies

If you want to delete, or disable your browser from receiving cookies follow the instructions provided in the help or preferences sections of your browser. Note that if you set your browser to disable cookies, you may not be able to access certain features of our website.
